Download and Installation

You may download the Bionic X4 application for your smart phone directly from the Android-Market (http://market.android.com). This might be necessary if you perform a factory-reset on your smart phone or if you traded it in for a new one.

In order to download the application, you will need a personal Google-Account for the Android-Market. Therefore run the Market-Application from your smart phone, as shown in figure 1.

Now follow the instructions on your smart phone. After configuring or creating your personal Google-Account search for the "Bionic X4" in the Android-Market-Search. Then you can instruct Android-Market to download and install the application automatically. After the application has been installed onto your smart phone, you can run it for the first time. Now your application will have to be activated.

Activation

After running the application the first time, the activation process starts automatically. If you would like to renew a previous activation, you have to press the menu button 🖃 on your smart phone. Then select "Renew Activation" (see figure 2, left).

In order to start the activation process, simply click the button "Continue" (see figure 2, right).
